

Academics

The program will help students with distance learning. We will assist students finish their homework required by their teachers. In addition, our extra academic curriculum will target younger students reinforce basic math and reading concepts.

CHINESE

The program offers children exposure to Chinese and Chinese American culture as well as language, through a variety of hands-on activities including dance, games, crafts and Chinese calligraphy

Arts & Crafts

Arts and Crafts Curriculum include many great activities that are perfect for kids of all ages with no prior experience necessary. The teachers are always on site to provide help when needed and to make sure all students have a sense of what they are doing. Arts and crafts are incredibly important, especially for growing children, as they give a chance for kids to explore their creativity while having fun as well

Program Outline:

- Campers and staff will remain in the same groups of twelve (12) children for the duration of the 3-week session. One to two weeks sessions are not available. Family members, or anyone living in the same household, will be in the same group. These small groups will not interact with other groups during the camp program. This is to minimize and limit virus exposure.
- Staff and campers will be required to complete a daily wellness check, including having temperature taken at check-in. There will be pick up and drop off loading zones and no contact between parents and other campers. Campers will be escorted to and from their cars by USAKFS staff. Parents will not be permitted into the building or around other campers for everyone's safety. For drop off, you must answer wellness check questions and for pick up, you must show a driver's license identification for the camper to be released.
- Please note that County Health requirements may continue to change. We will do our best to keep you informed regarding any program changes and we will continue to comply with the most current safety guidelines.
